

JACK CHESTNUT, who lives east of Mokena in Frankfort township, is a happy boy. His lightweight Shorthorn steer—Roanie—was not only picked as the champion of its breed at the Will County 4-H show last week but also was chosen reserve grand champion. The handsome roan yearling was purchased last year by Jack at the Illinois Shorthorn sale at Melvin, Ill. Darrell Jordan, Gibson City, was the breeder. Besides the ribbons Jack also was presented with a trophy from the Shorthorn Association. He would like to show Roanie at the state fair in Springfield but Roanie doesn't weigh enough. He tips the scales at 750 pounds but they want them heavier at the state fair. But Jack plans on being at Springfield just the same, to show a Black Angus steer. Jack is a member of the New Lenox Hay-skarers 4-H club and graduated from Arbury Hills school in June. He will be a freshman at Lincoln-Way high school this fall. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

FATAL ACCIDENT—Two cars came together at the junction of Wolf rd. and U.S. 6 at the south end of Orland township on Wednesday afternoon of last week, resulting in the death of one woman and injury to four others, including a 5-month old girl. The baby may be seen lying on the road between the two cars in the upper picture. The man at the right is her father, Walter R. Bone, and the mother's arm and side are visible under the door. One foot was caught in the car and she is lying on the roadway. In the lower photo the driver of that car, John Schulay is to be seen on the shoulder of the highway, his head pillowed on a cardboard box and his face was shielded from the sun by a newspaper. His wife, Katherine, was pinned in the wreckage and was believed instantly killed. (Graphic Newspaper photo)

L-W Enrollment For Fall Term At 1,102

Registration for the fall term at Lincoln-Way has been completed, indicating an increase of approximately seventy students over the previous school year. All of the incoming freshmen students registered last spring following their aptitude tests and later individual conferences with their parents. Upper classmen then registered early in the spring under the separate guidance and help from their respective faculty counselors.

Following these early enrollments, the school's schedule was drawn up assigning classrooms, teachers, students and all equipment to the proper places in order to provide maximum utilization of all personnel and facilities.

The present enrollment for the fall term is as follows: Freshman, 295; Sophomores, 280; juniors, 263; Seniors, 264; total enrollment, 1102.

The final schedule will be completed August 17. New students who haven't previously registered are requested to report immediately and before this final date in order to secure their desired courses.

The L-W guidance department is also requesting students who are not planning to attend school this year to notify the office.

ROBERT STOLL, Rt. 1, New Lenox, who was 11 years old last Saturday, had a wonderful pre-birthday present. His New Zealand White rabbit, a doe named Susie, was grand champion of the rabbit show at the Will County, 4-H fair. There were 248 rabbits shown. Susie was also champion of her breed. Those are the ribbons she won that Robert is holding in his left hand. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stoll, and is planning on showing Susie at the state fair this month in Springfield. Robert is a member of the Town Hall Blue Winners 4-H club and a fourth grade pupil in the Frankfort grade school. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

At Last! Reach Accord For Completing I-80

From Washington and Springfield comes word that the state of Illinois and the federal bureau of public roads, and the Illinois Toll Road commission have reached an agreement under which the missing link on FAI-80 can be constructed. It is said the highway will be complete in Illinois by the end of 1966.

FAI-80, a transcontinental highway linking the east and west coasts is to pass thru the edge of Tinley Park, between Orland Park and Mokena, cut thru Marley, swing southwest over Hickory creek, the Rock Island railroad and U.S. 30 east of Providence high school and then continuing beyond the New York Central and E. J. & E. railroads before finally heading west to pass thru the south end of Joliet.

Work has been progressing on the project in Joliet but east of Joliet an argument about the tollway has held up the work for years. Nothing has been done on building the highway from Hazel Crest to Joliet.

FAI-80 now comes from the east coast to Hammond and had construction been pushed on to Joliet there would have been another link with the east and the west by picking up U.S. 66 west of Joliet.

The big hassle was on the question of hooking up with the tollway. FAI-80 has made use of several toll roads in coming from the east to Hammond but the federal people said they were no longer going to feed "captive riders" into a toll road nor did they intend to buy any toll roads. The Illinois toll commission had five miles in the vicinity of Hazel Crest it was trying to peddle to the government and the state was endeavoring to help.

At a meeting in Washington last Thursday, which Congressman Edward Derwinski -- attended, it was decided the toll commission will widen a five mile sector of the tollway to six lanes. It is now four lanes. The U.S. will pay the normal 90 per cent of construction costs east from Joliet to Kedzie avenue at about 172nd st. in Hazel Crest. Until now the federal people had refused to pay on this portion east of the future interchange with the west branch (I-57) of the South expressway just west of Cicero ave. and south of 175th st.

The state will pay the cost of the final three-fourths of a mile for the hookup between the tollway and FAI-80 at 171st street and Western ave. This cost will be approximately $2.5-millions.

Donald R. Bonniwell, chairman of the toll commission, said the exit and entrance ramps at this interchange will have toll gates and the fee for passengers cars probably will be 15 cents.

This will be the first toll point for traffic traveling east out of San Francisco on FAI-80 it was said. Bonniwell was quoted as saying that there were no plans for building a toll gate on the main roadways in the five mile sector of Tri-State to be used as FAI-80 east from Hazel Crest to Kingery expressway which leads to the toll-free Tri-State expressway in Lake county Indiana. The closest gate will remain a mile north of FAI-80 interchange.

The Graphic Newspapers have been vitally interested in getting action on completion of FAI-80 because of the important part it is expected to play in the development of this region. Maurice Angland, of Mokena, where he is a member of the plan commission, has been largely instrumental in keeping pressure in quarters where it counts.

Gov. Kerner is quoted as saying that FAI-80 should be completed in Illinois in 1966.

List Tax Rates For Mokena, Frankfort

The tax rates to be applied in Frankfort and New Lenox townships in figuring the 1963 tax bills that will be payable this fall have been announced by County Clerk Clara Hartley Woodard.

Rates are up over those for 1962 in Frankfort township and down in New Lenox, but up or down, taxes will be higher this year than last because equalized assessed valuations are up and so are the tax levies of most of the taxing bodies.

Increased valuations should produce lower rates if levies are reduced, it was explained, but when taxing bodies make increased levies the rates have to remain up and so do tax payments.

The tax rate in Frankfort township varies according to place of residence.

The total rate for residents of the village of Mokena is $4.196 for 1963 as compared to $3.918 for 1962, per $100 equalized assessed valuation.

The total rate for residents of the village of Frankfort is for 1963 is $4.219 as compared to $4.191 for 1962, per $100 equalized assessed valuation.

These figures include the county tax rate, the town tax road and bridge, the forest preserve tax, the village tax, the high school and grade school taxes, and fire protection district taxes. In the case of Mokena residents there is also a park district tax.

The park district tax is also applied to property outside the village that lies within the confines of said district.

Persons living outside the villages of Frankfort and Mokena are, of course, spared the village taxes. They will pay the same high school tax but the grade school tax they pay depends upon the school district in which they reside.

The 1963 rates for the various taxing bodies are as follows:

County	$0.173
Forest Preserve	0.008
*Town	0.337
Mokena village	0.487
Frankfort village	0.655
Mokena Pk. Dist.	0.080
Mokena Fire Dist.	0.100
Frankfort Fire Dist.	0.041
159	1.325
Summit Hill Dist. 161	1.644
Ann Rutledge Dist. 56-C	1.278
Fkft. Sch. Dist.

157-C 1.319

L-W High, Dist. 210 .. 1.686

(*The figure given for the township includes town, poor relief and road and bridge).

The county tax is down six mills; the forest preserve down one mill compared to 1962. The total town figure is up one cent and six mills the Mokena fire district is up three mills; the Mokena park district is up nine mills; the Mokena village tax is up six cents; the Frankfort village tax is down 3.5 cents; Mokena school district is up 9.1 cents; Frankfort school district is down 2.1 cents, the Ann Rutledge school district tax is down 19 1/2 cents; the Summit Hill school district tax is up 34 cents;

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to "An Act in relation to the use of an assumed name in the conduct or transaction of business in this State," as amended, that a certificate was filed by the undersigned with the County Clerk of Cook County, file No. B-7623 on the 27 day of July, 1964 under the assumed name (s) of Reliable Tree Experts with place of business located at 4855 W. 95th St. The true name(s) and address of owner(s) is Stuart & Arline Smith, 8100 W. 135th st. the Lincoln-Way high school tax is up 10.6 cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation.

To give an example of what a tax bill would be, suppose a resident of the village of Mokena has real estate with an equalized assessed valuation of $10,000. One would multiply the total tax rate of $4.196 by 100 and the tax bill would be $419.60 as compared to $391.80 in 1962 on an equalized assessed valuation of $10,000.

A resident of Frankfort would thus pay $421.90 this year as compared to $419.10 last year, on an equalized assessed valuation of

Dangerous Junction Claims Another Life

A woman was killed and four persons injured, including a 5-month old girl, in a two-car collision at the intersection of Wolf rd. and U.S. 6, Orland township, on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

The accident occurred about 12:45 o'clock and it was an hour before the injured were delivered at Silver Cross hospital at Joliet.

According to Walter R. Bone, 20, Bardwell, Ky., he was driving south on Wolf rd. when a car going north came directly in his path and there was a head-on collision. There is a stop sign at the point where traffic from the south would make the turn to head north, but Bone was quoted as saying the other car, driven by John Schulay, 58, of Youngstown, O., did not stop.

District 4 state police ticketed Schulay on a charge of failure to yield right of way.

Schulay's wife, Katherine, 48, was fatally injured. Her head became caught between the cowl and the seat and she suffered a fractured skull. Schulay himself was thrown out of the car but one leg was caught in the wreckage and he lay on his back on the shoulder of the road until an ambulance arrived. He was then freed and sent to the hospital. Mrs. Schulay was dead at the scene but she was not pronounced officially dead until arrival at Silver Cross.

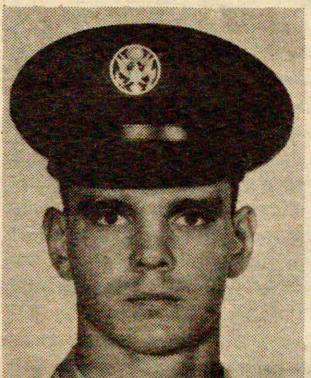

Bone, who was driving the other car, escaped with cuts and bruises, as did Schulay, but his wife, Mary Janet Bone, 18, and their 5-month old daughter, Laura, suffered skull fractures.

Mrs. Bone too was thrown out of the car, but not completely. Her feet were held by the wreckage and she was lying on her back on the highway. She had been holding the baby and the child was torn from her arms in the course of the fall from the car and lay on the pavement a few feet from the mother.

This was the second fatal accident at this intersection in the past 15 months.

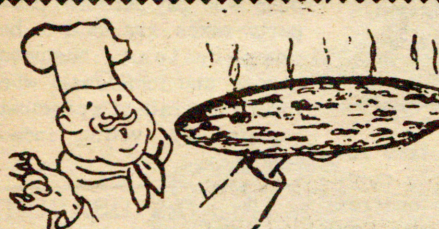

Area residents look on the intersection as dangerous because so many of the northbound drivers either fail to stop for the sign or pause momentarily and then shoot out in the face of traffic coming from the south as well as the north.

RI To Improve Cars, Depots For Fare Hike

As of yesterday (Aug. 5) commuters using the Rock Island trains found that if they bought a ticket then it was more.

The regular monthly riders purchased their tickets Saturday or Monday at the fare they have been paying and apparently they will serve for the remainder of the month. At least they have not been notified differently. The new rates were to become effective Aug. 5.

The increase in fares will run about 10% as far as monthly and weekly tickets are concerned.

The one way fare from Mokena to Chicago is now $1.60 instead of $1.33 and the roundtrip charge is $2.90 instead of $2.40.

The roundtrip fare between Mokena and Joliet is up 15 cents, from 95 cents to $1.10.

Monthly tickets are $36.45 from $33.15 and weekly tickets have risen from $9.20 to $10.10. This is the first increase

Officials Ponder Ways To Nail Tax Dodgers

Frankfort and New Lenox townships are listed among the five most-delinquent in Will county in the payment of personal property taxes. The other three with similar rating are Joliet, Lockport and Crete.

According to figures released by the county there is now owing some $3,865,000 in personal property taxes and the people in the five townships listed above owe 83 per cent of it.

In the magistrate division of the Will county circuit court there are approximately 3,000 cases awaiting disposition.

Contrary to the belief of many people the personal property tax law was set up by the Illinois legislature and on repeated occasions the state supreme court has held it to be constitutional. All the money paid in thru personal taxes remains in the county where the assessments are made. State nor federal governments get a taste of this money. It is distributed by the county treasurers in accordance with the levies made by the various political subdivisions within each county.

The almost 4-million delinquent personal property tax bill has accumulated in the past five years. Many people who have been paying the tax are asking why these delinquencies have been allowed to accumulate and some feel they are carrying the burden of their neighbor who refuses to pay. Others wonder why they should pay personal property taxes when so many derive the same governmental benefits and pay nothing.

Of the huge sum owing the schools would receive better than $2.5-million. Cities, villages, fire districts, libraries and other taxing bodies that are always seeking revenues would also benefit.

Will county officials whose duty it is to collect these taxes are reported to be formulating plans to correct the situation but as yet have made no statement. It is possible they will resort to further court action.

In such event court facilities would have to be enlarged. If this method is used the delinquent taxpayers will find themselves paying not only the statutory penalty, which is one cent a month and advancing that amount each month, but they also would have the filing fee, the sheriff's service fee and the court costs.

The five townships with the best record of payment in the county are Green Garden, Florence, Wheatland, Custer and Will.

A lot of the resistance to the personal property tax in Will county is said to stem from the increasing infiltration of people moving into the county from Chicago and Cook county where the only ones who pay personal property taxes are said to be corporations, business houses and individuals who incur the wrath of a precinct captain by voting independently.

EXPLAINS DRAUGHT

(CNS) - During a severe drought there is often plenty of moisture in the air, a study published last week by the Illinois State Water Survey revealed.

The bulletin, "Drought Climatology in Illinois," by F.A. Huff and S.A. Changnon Jr., explained that the problem is that relatively high temperatures and unusually stable air prevent the formation of rain.

A detailed study of Illinois droughts since 1906 reveals that the amount of water vapor in the air is often near normal during droughts, but the humidity is relatively low because of above-normal temperatures. Further, an extremely stable atmosphere prevents what is called vertical development, or clouds and thunderstorms and therefore, rainfall.

Report "Monster" Seen In New Lenox Area

An animal, identified as a panther, a dog, or simply as "the monster," reported south and southeast of Joliet some 10 days ago, is moving north according to information given the sheriff's office at Joliet this past week-end.

A 14-year-old girl, Delores Nickel, of Sweitzer rd., south of Joliet, was brought to Silver Cross hospital Saturday night by companions. The youngster had become panicky, deputies were told, after encountering a large animal on Parker rd. about four miles north of New Lenox. She was not held at the hospital.

The girl, her sister, brother, and two young men were riding along Parker rd. Saturday night when this animal crossed in front of them. The driver of the car, James Singelton, 21, 501 Cherry st., Joliet, told deputies he attempted to hit the beast with his car but missed.

Singelton stopped the car

Soil Judging Contest Set For Aug. 11

The land use selection contest for 4-H and Future Farmers of America teams from Will and South Cook counties, and the Section 8 soil judging contest will be held next Tuesday, Aug. 11 on the Arthur Anderson farm Green Garden township. The contests are scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m.

A plaque will be awarded the winning team by the Fox Valley Production Credit Association, with John Lubky, field representative of the agency making the presentation. Ribbons will be presented to individual winners.

Soil conservation personnel assisting in the program are Howard Turner, Jack Paschke, Alan May and Tom Morgan, also William Stetler, of Tinley Park, secretary of the Will - South Cook Soil and Water Conservation district sponsors of the contests.

and the animal also stopped after crossing the roadway and sat down, staring at the occupants of the car. The occupants of the car stared back and finally both parties moved on. They said it was of dark color, about six feet long, and in height came up to the headlights on the car.

At 1:40 a.m. Monday Mrs. Samuel Tyler, 224 E. Francis rd., was awakened by growls, she told sheriff's deputies, and all the dogs in the area were barking. Deputies who responded to the call said that the dogs in the area were quite restless and noisy.

A woman near New Lenox is reported to have seen the animal and identified it as a member of the cat family. She was certain, according to deputies, that it wasn't a dog.

The animal that was creating a furor in the Joliet area left tracks that were identified as those of a dog, Joliet police said after they had consulted experts.

At the sheriff's office it was pointed out that some weeks ago three panthers escaped from a carnival at DesPlaines. One was captured, one was shot, and one disappeared.

Deputies and state police have made several searches in the area but to date have not encountered any animal of the "monster class."

Blackwell Hurls No-Hitter As Frankfort Beats Grants, 20-0

Distaff Golf

BY BIRDIE McDIVOT
Did you miss Distaff Golf last week? The only ones to brave the hot weather were undaunted, Vera Richardson and Toot Muehler.

The following are the match games to date: Churchill beat Sondergaard 3 and 2, Hug beat Istel 5 and 3, Sondergaard beat Nelson 1 up, Richardson beat Olson 5 and 3, and Richardson and Hug tied. This last match will have to be replayed.

Who putted on #8 and ended up in a sand trap and had to take two to get out, thus running her score as well as her disposition for that hole?

This week's winners were Helen Churchill with a 37 for 1st, Toot Muehler with a 40 for 2nd, Esther Hug with a 45 for 3rd, Chuck Sondergaard with a 46 for 4th, and Vera Richardson with a 50 and Marge Istel with a 52 were 5th and 6th winners for the golf balls.

Next week 1st and 2nd place will win the golf balls.

We hope the warm weather will not keep all of the girls off the greens. Come on out early in the morning, girls, and you won't feel the heat. See you next week?

Blackwell struck out 10 men and walked six. Only one man was able to lift the ball out of the infield. His colleagues played errorless ball and had a great day at the plate, hammering out 14 hits.

The attack was led by Frank Fleck who reached base safely in all five times at bat, driving in seven runs in the process. Pat McCabe and Tom Stoner also reached base safely in the five times they were up. Pat had two hits and drove in four runs; Stoner drew four walks in his trips to the plate and got one hit.

Pat's twin, Mike McCabe got three hits and was safe once on a fielder's choice. Dale Brown had three hits, Jim Vaughn two and two RBI's. Wayne Francis had a double to his credit and three runs driven in. Blackwell also contributed to his victory by getting a double and two walks and scoring each time. Jim Upton, smallest man on the team, had a starting position for the first time this season and celebrated the occasion by reaching base safely on four out of five times at bat, drawing three walks and having been hit by a pitched ball.

On their homegrounds, however, the Frankforts lost to Steger, 5 to 4. Artie Schilling suffered heat fatigue and so was not his usual sharp self. He fanned three, walked three and allowed four hits. Only two of Steger's runs were earned. Frankfort's defense, invincible against the Grant Parks, committed four errors against Steger.

Frankfort scored one run in the fourth on hits by Jim Vaughn and Pat McCabe; two runs in the sixth when Tom Stoner walked and scored on another single by Pat McCabe, who in turn came home on a hit by his brother Mike.

Lincoln Estates Small Fry End 1st Game In 10-10 Tie

The Mighty Mites, the newly organized little league team of Lincoln Estates played the Thornton Eagles Saturday, July 25 at Thornton. It was their first game with only three weeks of training, and they played an excellent game. The score was 10 to 10 in the seventh inning when the game was called because of darkness. The tie will be played off soon.

The team was managed by Erdic Dickens with Robert White coaching at first base and Don Schofield

Frankfort was threatening to pull the game out of the fire in the seventh. Ricky Kohlbacher, who has been out of the line-up because of an injury, was recovered enough to blast out a double as a pinch hitter and then scored on a long drive by Stoner. Stoner, however, overslid the bag at third in endeavoring to make it a triple, and was tagged out in trying to get back.

Steger scored five runs on four hits and had one error. Frankfort outhit the visitors, having seven safeties to its credit but those four errors were too many.

coaching third. Charles Scheeler kept score.

Appreciation was expressed to the community for their support and donations and to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Frankenberg for painting the name of the ball team on the boys tee shirts.

The next scheduled game will be played at Frankfort against their team, August 4 at 6 p.m.

16-2, DAPPLED GRAY and all horse, is the description given of "Artistic Assignment," of the Huntoon Stables of Sugar Grove, Ill., and ridden by Carleton Huntoon. The height of a horse is measured in hands, a hand being equal to four inches. The 16-2 means this horse is 16 hands two inches tall at the withers. The withers is that level portion of his back just ahead of the saddle. Most saddle horses aren't that tall. Generally 15-2 is a good size for a saddle horse. Huntoon has exhibited this horse at numerous of the better shows in this part of the country, including the Kane county fair horse show which this year will be held Aug. 7, 8 and 9, afternoon and evening. The Kane county fair is held at Geneva, which is not far from Aurora.

Willow Farms Dairy To Expand Delivery

The Willow Farm Products Co. of LaGrange has announced that, as of July 20, it is expanding direct home delivery of its dairy products to the south and southwestern suburbs, including the Lemont area.

Remodeling of the Willow Farm plant in LaGrange has been going on for the past two years and should be completed by next summer. When completed, the modern dairy plant will have the capacity to process approximately 1,000,000 pounds of milk and dairy products per day.

Willow Farms operates approximately 185 retail routes and sells 95 per cent of its products at retail. The products include homogenized, cream top and skim milk, buttermilk, sour cream, its own cottage cheese and its own butter.

The firm has been a Polivka family operation since 1916. Jack W. Polivka is president, Edward Polivka is vice president and Adolf Sharie is secretary-treasurer.

ASKS ZONING CHANGE

An application by Standard Oil Co. for a change in zoning classification of the southwest corner of 175th st. and Cicero ave., Bremen township, has been referred to the Cook county zoning board of appeals. The petitioner is asking for a change from R-3 single family residential district to B-2 restricted service district covering 2.38 acres as a site for a gas station.

EMPLOYMENT TRENDS IN MAJOR INDUSTRIES

Civilian employment is expected to rise from 67,000,000 in 1960 to more than 80,000,000 in 1970-- a gain of 21% in the decade according to projection of the U.S. Department of Labor on the assumption of a full employment economy.

Employment in agriculture is expected to fall by 22% from 5.4 Million in 1960 to 4.2 Million by 1970 due primarily to the increased use of machinery, fertilizers, feed additives, pesticides and other new technological processes.

Total non-agricultural employment will increase by about 15,000,000 during this same decade. More than 85% of this increase will be among wage and salary workers. Self-employed unpaid family workers and domestics will likewise increase about 19% over the decade. Industries furnishing services are expected to grow faster than those producing goods -- 28% compared to 18%.

Some of the fastest growing industries in the service field include -- Transportation, Utilities, Finance, Insurance, Real Estate, Government. By 1970 the service industries may employ about 65% of all non-agricultural workers.

WHOLESALE & RETAIL TRADE

Increased employment in these fields will be slowed by changes in marketing practices and management techniques such as increased use of vending machines, self-service shopping and computers for inventory control and billing. However, employment in the wholesale and retail fields is expected to increase to about 14,000,000 by 1970.

GOVERNMENT

Overall government employment is likely to increase to more than 11,000,000 by 1970. Most of this increase will be among state and local government agencies.

SERVICES AND MISCELLANEOUS INDUSTRIES

Consumers will probably spend an increased share of their income on services as percapital income rises. As a result, employment in the service industries may total 10,000,000 people by 1970, an increase of 38% from 1960.

TRANSPORTATION AND PUBLIC UTILITIES

Taking into consideration the diverse trends among the industries included in the transportation and public utilities divisions, employment may increase by only about 400,000 from 1960 to 1970.

FINANCE, INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE

Spurred by the general growth of our industrial and urban society, the increasing complexity of the nation's financial activities, and rising levels of income, employment in this industry is expected to grow from 2.7 Million in 1960 to 3.5 Million by 1970 -- an increase of about 30%. Because women currently comprise almost half of this industry's employment, the areas of finance, real estate, and insurance has significant job implication for women.

MANUFACTURING

Employment in manufacturing is expected to increase at a much slower rate than in other fields.
In 1960 manufacturing was the largest non - agricultural industry employing 16.8 million workers. By 1970 employment in this industry will increase to about 19,000,000 or 28% of the nonagricultural workers, a drop from 30% in 1960.

The largest increase in employment will be in plants making missiles, spacecraft, and electronic products. The fastest growing non-durable producers will be in the chemical, printing and paper industries.

CONTRACT CONSTRUCTION

Employment in this field is expected to increase nearly 35% between 1960 and 1970 to more than 4,000,000 workers. Home and apartment house construction along with school, hospitals, and roads will be significant areas for this growth. The U.S.
Department of Commerce has indicated an increase of 57% in new construction between 1960 and 1970.

MINING

Mining employment is expected to remain fairly close to the 1960 level of 700,000 through 1970.
Any increases that may occur in the petroleum and gas industry will be offset by the continuous decline of employment in the bituminous coal mining industry.

Margie Olson Really A Girl On The Go

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Here is another letter from Margie Olson, of Mokena, Lincoln-Way high school's ambassador as a foreign exchange student in Japan to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olson. And she appears to be doing a good job. Margie likes people and people like Margie. It is a good thing that she will get home this month so she will have a chance to get a little rest before school begins in September. It has been Go-Go-Go for Margie.)

-O- July 20, 1964

I guess my package didn't arrive in time for Mom's birthday -- I'm sorry. Anyway, I hope it gets there! There are lots of important memories packed away in that box.

I'm in Hitoyoski now. I don't remember exactly where I was when I last wrote, so forgive me if I repeat.

I was only in Tobata two days. From there, I went to Shimonoseki. It's on Honshu so we had to take a tunnel under the ocean because the straits are dangerous. I stayed at the home of a surgeon whose house is connected to a hospital. This is where I saw my first tea ceremony and was given a gift of a yukata (summer kimono). Gifu was next on my schedule. I spent four glorious days there that I wish I could spend again. I stayed at Iwamura's house. Hisoko is L. W. next foreign exchange student. She is a dear and everyone will love her. I love her whole family. I called Mr. and Mrs. Iwamura "Papa and Mama" or "Otochan and Okachan". They are wonderful and made me feel so welcome. Fukuoka was next - for one night - then I took a four hour train ride to Nagasaki. It was common to see cripples in Nagasaki. I saw Mme. Butterfly's house, the place where the bomb exploded and a museum of A Bomb relics - melted bottles, etc.

After Nagasaki, I went to Mt. Unzen. I was unable to take any pictures there because of a dense fog. We could scarcely see each other. I was all alone at the hotel in Unzen, but I had a lot of fun trying to talk to the chambermaids. Two gentlemen from next door invited me in and we had an interesting talk about the war.

The next day I went by car to a town called Shimabara, and then by ferry to Kumamoto. There I was met by Mr. Maeda - Michiko, little sister Reiko and Michiko's friend, Kuko. We took a train to Hitoyoski. We were met by a crowd of people. Since then I have been relatively free from a schedule. There is always something I have to do - I visited the fire house and had to go to two newspaper offices. I went swimming in the river and rowing three times. Twice we went sight-seeing and I visited one of the high schools. Today I have to be a judge in an English Speech Contest at the high school. Once I went shopping by myself and promptly got lost. I don't know a great deal of Japanese, but I can make myself understood sometimes. Anyway, I am never without my two dictionaries.

On Sunday, I attend 9:00 Mass at the Church of the Holy Rosary. The pastor there is Father Devine, a Columban father who was born and raised in Ireland. He speaks Japanese with an Irish brogue. He has been here thirteen years and has trouble remembering English. It's funny -- he'll sit and say "Now what's that work? - Oh yes - 'Seminary'". He's very nice. Last Sunday he had me stay for breakfast and has invited me for dinner. The other day he called me several times but the line was always busy. He wanted to take me with him to bring Communion out to the farmers. Tomorrow we're going to a place called Ebino Heights. It's a hiking course. The next day we're going to shoot the rapids in large excursion boats. I won't be free much anymore - today is Michiko's last day of school.

Hitoyoshi is what its inhabitants call a "tray place" because it is completely surrounded by mountains. The mountains are lovely and green. Right through the town flows the beautiful mountain river called the Kumugawa. Sometimes it is clear green, sometimes clear blue, right now it is muddy green because it rained for two days and a night.

We were supposed to have a big fireworks festival Saturday, but it was rained out. Last summer it was rained out three times so it was cancelled. I don't know whether this one is cancelled or just postponed.

Here's something funny that happened to me. There is a darling baby boy down the block from us. Once I was playing with him and he made a face, so I said, "Oh Masoyukichan don't cry." In Japanese "Dono Kurai" means "How old are you" so his father beamed proudly and answered "nine months".

By the way Seiko Olson's mother and sister came to visit me in Hitoyoski. Junko Itoyama and her mother are really sweet people. They want me to tell Seikosan that they are all well. They gave me a very beautiful present - a night lamp in the shape of a stone lantern. I'll send it home soon, but I may be home before it arrives. We had a hard time getting an interpreter. My regular interpreter, Todashi Uemura (25) had to work and Michiko was at school. There is an American missionary family here with a 16 year old daughter but she was at camp. It seems that Father Devine is always busy, but we were finally able to get a Protestant minister who was gracious enough to spend the whole afternoon with us. We had a good visit.

I forgot to mention that I now have 3 Yukatas, 2 obis, a tea ceremony cup and a flower arrangement scissors. I've made 3 arrangements and have learned half the tea ceremony. Mr. Maeda teaches both courses.

Also, I have a confession to make. I squandered 800 yen ($2.40) yesterday on a fan that I have wanted since I was in Shimonoseki. Wait until you see it and smell it. It's Chinese and made from a tree with a beautiful fragrance. I love it. In Iizuka it costs 900 yen, so I saved 30¢ by waiting.

I'm sorry to be lax in writing, but it's awfully hard to do. I have so many things to do and I'm three days behind in my diary. Now I have to eat and go to school.

If you hear anything about my homes along the route home, please let me know. I haven't heard anything yet and time grows short. See you soon!

Love,
Margie.

Hints For Homeowners

RICHARD DeLANO
ASSISTANT FARM ADVISOR
If you are interested in annuals and bedding plants that bloom in shade, you may get some pointers by visiting the University of Illinois floriculture greenhouses in Urbana. There G.M. Fosler, University of Illinois floriculturist, has more than 185 varieties of shade-loving annuals and bedding plants planted in special beds between the greenhouses. Semi-shade is created by plastic netting.

This year the beds feature extensive plantings of fibrous rooted begonias, impatiens, seed - grown coleus, lobelias, and pansies. Such shade - loving annuals can still be transplanted this year.

However, it takes a little extra effort to transplant to even-shaded locations during this ninety-degree heat. The first step is to wet the soil the evening before the transplanting. This makes the soil easy to work but not muddy.

When planting the next day, water again with a starting solution made by adding one teaspoonful of a high-phosphorus, soluble fertilizer per gallon of water. Each newly started plant will need about a pint of this solution.
